Sale of Blooded Stock.

About the middle of next month John Sweeney will sell at his ranch at public auction about fifty fine Gibraltar fillies in foal to Alpha and Triumph, and a number of yearlings and two-years-olds by Gibraltar. The sale will be without reserve and there ought to be a large attendance, as this will be the last sale of Gibraltar colts in this State, as Gibraltar will be taken East after the sale.

If you want to enjoy a real hearty laugh, why don't you listen to the two parties telling the truth when they denounce each other for perjury on the silver question.—News-Miner.

The horses sold at Sweeney's sale yesterday brought about 25 per cent of their value. There is but poor encouragement to raise good stock when the public have such a small appreciation of it.

The spring fights have commenced with Dick Roberts and O. A. F. Gilbert in the ring. The cause was a hard name applied to Gilbert by Roberts and the result was a draw—of Dick into the cooler.

A man named Syford wrote a communication to the Silver State in which are found Latin quotations. Plain English is considered quite sufficient for the needs of the reading public in these days.

Gen. Clark drew a tremendous round of applause from the audience at the Comstock Silver meeting on Saturday night when he said:

"I am tired of hearing men talk silver and note gold."

The Tribune is not specially to be blamed for advocating the $40,000 job. It was only a weak tool in the hands of designing men. The public has not held the Tribune responsible for any vagary it has indulged in for some time past.

The fight for free silver must be made now. The Presidential campaign affords the opportune time. Candidates should be compelled to declare themselves. The voters will not be hoodwinked this year.—Pueblo Ore & Metal Review.

The hottest as well as the prettiest political contest this year will be in Kansas, between Ingalls and Anthony on one side and the farmers and citizens Alliance on the other. It will be a square fight to a finish between free silver and Wall street.

A shepherd named William Ramsay in the employ of W. M. Vanburen came to Reno Sunday evening from a sheep camp five miles south of town and gave himself up to Officer Nash, saying that he had trouble with a fellow-herder named W. J. Silva and had struck him over the head with a six-shooter and probably killed him. Officer Campbell has gone to the scene. Ramsay was locked up. It has since transpired that the man had been beaten badly, but was still alive.

The opening of so large a portion of Indian Territory to settlement will cut off one of the main outlets for Texas steers and force a reduction of breeding herds in this State. Northwest Texas formerly turned off good beef but during last years the ranges and pastures have been so overstocked that the shipment of steers north to the Nation or other ranges was a necessity. The curtailment of this outlet means another rush of the cattle on the eastern beef markets and continued low values for such cattle.

Somewhat Mistaken.

The APPEAL is being boycotted by citizens of Carson on the ground that the paper is no longer Republican.—Chloride Belt.

The above is not true. The citizens of Carson are not boycotting the APPEAL. A little boycotting is being done by some officers in the State capitol building, because of the decided stand of the APPEAL for silver, but for every one who stops the paper for that reason two silver men take his place. We can stand more of this sort of boycotting.

Again the Chloride Belt says: The Carson News is now red-hot in favor of the silver league. The News has never so expressed itself under its present management.

An Old Maid's Course.

The Nevada Central employees have made a few changes at the shops in the last week. The water-pipe connections between the artesian well and large cistern adjoining the car house have been displaced, a cap put on the well and the water forced directly to the engine. The cistern, which has fallen into disuse, was the center of attraction in the reign of Supt. Dunn who stocked it with gold fish and made it a fashionable bathing resort for Battle Mountain's 400. In an humorous mood, Dunn, on one occasion, invited an old maid to bathe in the waters, and meantime posted the shop boys at every crevice to observe her naid movements. The dear girl discovered the plot, but too late, the scene had passed, and in supplication she prayed that the wrath of the gods be brought upon the place. The prayer was answered for the gold fish died, the waters had the qualities of the Dead Sea, and worst of all the timbers rotted and the tank leaked. Since then the cistern has been in quasi disuse. When the present Master Mechanic last Friday, for the first time, heard of the old maids interdict, he issued an order blotting from the N. C. es-etcheson all old maids' heirlooms. Since then the boys have turned the shop upside-down in search of relics, with a bachelor at the helm.—Central Nevadaian.

DIED LIKE A DOG.

Deeming the murderer of his wives and children died like a craven cur when he reached the gallows. He could slash the throat of a woman he had sworn to love and dash a babies brains out but the sight of the noose and cross beam unnerved him and he shook with fear and begged for more time, like the wretched, white-livered cowardly dog he always was.

The Money Here.

Yesterday the $1000 for the Indians arrived and is in the hands of Bill Gibson of the Indian School. The Indians say they don't want flour and such truck; they want the money and they were out there yesterday making a vociferous demand for it. They seem to have an idea that there is some jobbery afoot.
